

Data Cabling

DATA SHEET

Pickering's data cabling service can be provided to sites nationwide for a single portable cabin, a cabin complex or a modular building. It is suitable for sites of all sizes.

Features & Benefits

- Connects our high speed internet to network ports, printers, phones & more.
- Ensure internet & voice connectivity.
- Structured cabling allows issues to be more easily identified and resolved.
- Solution for one cabin; a site complex or a modular building.
- Structured cabling comes with very high bandwidth.
- Easy to manage & keeps your cabling under control.
- UK wide installation service.
- Can be ordered at the same time as your Pickering's site accommodation.
- Hides all cables.
- Can be installed the first day your portable & modular buildings are installed on site.
- Combines high gain external antennae & rugged 4G router for business grade internet.
- Provides complete office coverage.
- Speedy resolution, reduces downtime, increases workers productivity.
- Suitable for site of all sizes for your convenience.
- Ensures the system can support future applications without interruptions
- Easily identify which cable is connected to which location for speedy resolution.
- Saves hassle of managing multiple suppliers by using a single source.
- Creates a tidy & safety working area.
- Provides the perfect solution for your business needs.
- You can also check out our Wifi solutions from our Pickering's+ range.